COMMUNICATION FILMS
TO BE SHOWN SATURDAY AT U

MISSOULA---

Communication at various levels will be emphasized Saturday in a series of films at the University of Montana.

The program is for the general public, including those involved professionally with various levels of communications.

First film, to be shown at 9 a.m., is entitled "The Information Explosion." The program is offered through extension and continuing education at the University.

The films will be shown in the Music Recital Hall. There is no charge for viewing the films.
