RUTH SILVIUS WINS
GRADUATE FELLOWSHIP

Ruth Silvius, Fort Benton, who received a bachelor of music degree from the University of Montana June 9, has been awarded a full fellowship for graduate study at the College Conservatory of Music, University of Cincinnati.

Before entering graduate school, Miss Silvius, a soprano, will study with Eleanor Steber at a six-week summer workshop at Temple University, Philadelphia, Pa. She was a voice student of Jane Hevener Lea and John Lester at the UM.

Miss Silvius was named "outstanding senior woman" at the Theta Sigma Phi Matrix Honor Table this spring. During her college career she was active in musical organizations and in Montana Masquers. She sang the role of Marguerita in the UM production of Gounod's "Faust" in May, and she has performed with the Red Door Players Summer Theater, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Silvius, Fort Benton.
