COL. MEANS TO LEAVE
AIR FORCE COMMAND AT UM

MISSOULA---

Lt. Col. Harwood F. Means, professor of aerospace studies and chairman of the Air Force ROTC department at the University of Montana, Missoula, recently received orders assigning him to Wheeler Air Force Base, Hawaii.

He will serve as director of personnel at the Hawaii base which is the headquarters of the Pacific Security Region of the USAF Security Service.

Col. Means has served in the Air Force for 28 years and has been with the UM faculty since 1966. He holds the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal and Purple Heart, and was a navigator on the North African front during World War II.

Col. Means' wife, who is the former Shirley Miller of Ardmore, Okla., and the couple's daughter, Paula, a junior at UM, are preparing to move to Hawaii late this summer. Paula will attend the University of Hawaii, Col. Means said.

Also a native of Ardmore, Col. Means is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H.E. Means of that Oklahoma city.

Col. Jack Swayze, previously stationed at Grand Forks Air Force Base, North Dakota, and now at the instructor's school at Maxwell Air Force Base in Montgomery Ala., will replace Col. Means. Col. Swayze is expected to arrive in Missoula August 20.
