Students Will Vote This Quarter On New Student Union Building

The plan of a new student union building will be put before the student body late this quarter for approval or disapproval.

Robert T. Pantzer, Financial Vice President, reported yesterday that Pres. H. K. Newburn gave his approval to go ahead in the preliminary planning for the new building.

Gov. Tim Babcock is expected to appoint an architect soon to draw up plans for the proposed building. But this is just one of the steps before a new building can be built.

Yesterday the Student Union Executive Council approved the preliminary plans for the new building.

Formal plans for the building started several years ago when two committees, one appointed by Pres. Newburn and one named by Central Board, started investigating the need for the addition.

Both committees found that the building is needed for two main reasons: to allow the food service to expand into other parts of the present Lodge, and to provide Student Union facilities, for activities now operating under a lack of space.

Pres. Newburn has said that the University would buy the present Lodge, for which the students are still paying.

However, before a new structure can be built, the Board of Regents must approve the University's request and negotiations must be made with the Housing and Home Finance Association for a loan from the federal government.

The big step is gaining the approval of the student body, since it is student money with which the building would be built. Plans call for a referendum late this quarter.

Final approval of the project must come from the 1963-64 legislature. If all groups concerned approve the plan, bids probably would be let by next September.

Newburn to Discuss Problem Of Communications at CB

An attempt to improve communications between the University and student body will be made tonight when Pres. H. K. Newburn leads an informal discussion at Central Board.

Ed Whitelaw, ASMSU president, said the session is designed primarily for Central Board members, but other students may attend. The group will meet at 7 p.m. in the Silver Bow room.

The discussion is a direct outgrowth of last year's complaints that communications between the administration and students and faculty are poor, Whitelaw said.

Tonight's meeting represents the "beginning of a series of meetings we hope will last for the year," the student official said.

Plans call for similar meetings as often as once a month.

Describing the meeting as "very informal," Whitelaw said he did not know what would be discussed. Pres. Newburn will answer—and perhaps ask—questions, he said.

A convocation is planned later this quarter to give the entire student body an opportunity to hear Pres. Newburn.

But, Whitelaw noted, because of the number of students, accomplishments at such mass meetings are naturally limited. It is hoped that additional problems can be solved through the meetings of the president and smaller groups, such as Central Board.

Whitelaw said he hopes that living groups and clubs will invite Pres. Newburn to speak to them concerning the University.

Mr. Burgess said he plans to spend more of his time in research and teaching.

Yankees Win Last Game, Take Series

By BRYSON TAYLOR

Ralph Terry beat out rival Jack Sanford in their private duel in another thrilling game as the New York Yankees squeezed out a 1-0 victory over the San Francisco Giants and won the 1962 World Series yesterday.

This was the third meeting between the two pitchers in the seven game Series. Sanford beat Terry in the second game 2-0, then Terry came back to defeat Sanford in the fifth game 5-3.

Terry pitched a four-hitter in going the route to pick up his second Series victory against one defeat. He retired the first 17 men to face him before Sanford singled to right center with two gone in the sixth. He had allowed only two hits up to the ninth inning.

The Giants kicked up a threat in the bottom of the ninth when Matty Alou, a pinch hitter, dropped a drag bunt toward Bobby Richardson and beat it out for a base hit. Terry got Felipe Alou and Chuck Hiller on strikes. Then Willy Mays blasted a double to the right field corner, with Matty Alou holding up at third when Bobby Richardson relayed Roger Maris' throw to Elston Howard at the plate.

With two on and two out, Willy McCovey, the hitting star of Monday's contest, rocketed the ball back to Richardson, almost toppling the little second sacker. But Richardson held on to the ball for (Continued on page three)

Women's Representatives Discuss Hours Changes

Housemothers, sorority alumnae representatives and presidents of women's living groups met yesterday with Maurine Clow, dean of women, and Kemmie Kammerzell, AWS president, to discuss the extension of Sunday closing hours.

The meeting was called in response to an AWS poll which showed women students heavily in favor of a change in the Sunday closing time.

The group reportedly favored the extension of Sunday evening hours for upperclasswomen to 11:30. The time now is 11 p.m.

A proposal to allow senior and junior women to take late per on Sunday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings was considered. This change would make it possible for some women to remain out until 12:30 Sunday evenings if the 11:30 Sunday hours go into effect. Tuesdays would no longer be open to late privileges, if this plan were to be adopted.

Other proposals raised during the polling allegedly did not meet with the group's approval.

Miss Clow said that no changes will be made until the issue is thoroughly studied.

"However," she added, "every consideration is being given to the request. The decision will be made as rapidly as possible."

Astronaut Visits JFK After Tour

WASHINGTON (AP) — Astronaut Walter M. Schirra Jr., fresh from a wild, confetti welcome in his native New Jersey, visited President Kennedy at the White House yesterday.

His 6-orbit, 9-hour space adventure a little over two weeks old, Schirra is completing a welcome home tour.

Yesterday he received the Navy's astronaut wings from Secretary Fred Korth in a Pentagon ceremony.

Clues to Deaths Sought by FBI

WASHINGTON (AP) — Guns carried by federal marshals in Oxford, Miss., will be checked by the FBI for possible clues to the slaying of two men, the Justice Department said yesterday.

A department spokesman said the ballistic tests had been ordered in an attempt to "put to rest irresponsible statements."

The check was being made in connection with the death of French newsmen Paul Guihard and Ray Gunter, an Oxford electronics repairman. Both were shot to death during the Sept. 30 outbreak of violence over the admission of Negro James H. Meredith to the previously all-white University of Mississippi at Oxford.

Castro Embraces Algerian Premier

Germans Baffled By Rusk Views

WASHINGTON (AP) — West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer does not fully share the U.S. view that Russia will create a new Berlin crisis before the end of the year, Gerhard Schroeder, Bonn's foreign minister, has told Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

In reporting this, diplomatic observers said Bonn is somewhat baffled by the virtually unanimous prediction of Kennedy administration officials that Soviet Premier Khrushchev means it this time when he says that Western occupation of West Berlin must be liquidated after the U.S. congressional elections next month.

PRITHEE LOOK, A GOLDEN RAY!—Whilst sitting askance in their offices yesterday, Ray Maidment (left), graduate journalism student, and W. Hoadley Wood, Kaimin sports editor, were drawn blithely to yon Oval where they partook of the first warm weather in nearly two weeks. However, as evening coolness came, they were forced to retire within the warm sanctuary of the Journalism Building. (Kaimin photo by Bruce McGowan.)

Note

The Kaimin takes this representative case in point to comment on a situation which generally exists at MSU. In reference to Mr. Griffin's letter on this page, the Kaimin notices an ignorance of and concern for construction of University buildings.

Part of this ignorance is excusable. For more than two years the Student Union Building committees quietly have worked on plans for a new building. And until they have completed preliminary planning, ASMSU will not ask for definite student action on this matter. When completed the committees will give students the plan for their approval or rejection.

Counterpoint and Fact

In his letter Mr. Griffin infers that the University should use building monies for construction other than the SU project. However, he compares two different building categories as being the same—the SU Building, if approved by students and the legislature, would be financed with student monies. Others, such as those Mr. Griffin mentions, are provided for in the tax-financed State University budget.

In other words, the $2,000,000 for a new SU Building will be drawn from student fees, not state building funds.

The proposed SU project is not receiving "top priority" at MSU. The committees are merely providing a concrete building plan for students to study and then decide its fate in a December referendum vote. If students reject, the issue will be dead, temporarily. If students approve, the plan will be presented to the state legislature when it convenes in January, 1963.

Good Point Raised

Mr. Griffin's concern provokes thought as to whether a new SU Building is really what this University needs. The present plan is that the University Food Service purchase the entire Lodge and the students move quarters to their new building.

However, students must examine the issue closely and answer the questions which have arisen.

Will construction of a $2,000,000 SU Building be in keeping with the University's prime purpose, education? Would the new building exist for merely fashionable purposes, designed to keep MSU up with current trends and vogues? Or should students donate their financial support to other areas, such as the library?

These and many others are questions which students must answer before voting in the December referendum. The Kaimin will inform students on this issue as information becomes available.

Meanwhile, you interested people write your parents in the state, write the governor, the Board of Regents and the University Administration. Tell them what you think, and know, and ask for the same. If you want the building, support it. If you'd rather see the other projects initiated, stand up and be heard.

The worst thing students can do in this or any other issue is allow someone else to decide for them.

New 'MSU Hilton' Opposed by Griffin

To the Kaimin:

MSU has recently received permission to design a new $2,000,000 Student Union. The Student Union is a wonderful institution, in fact without the Lodge, MSU would probably have long ago dwindled into obscurity, for the real cause of the nation's crowded colleges has not been the "war babies," but the bigger and better Student Unions that rival Rockefeller Center and have automatic coffee machines with buttons for extra cream and extra sugar.

However, this time, $2,000,000 might be more wisely spent. Among other things, we need a new Math-Physics building, additions to the Forestry and Chemistry buildings, and more books for the Library. It is true that the new "MSU Hilton" will attract more coffee drinkers, and we may even beat MSC, but what about the serious students who are interested in schools with facilities like labs, classrooms, and good libraries? Why is another Student Union receiving top priority here at MSU?

'Ole Miss' AAUP Blasts Riots, Weapons

The MSU chapter of the American Association of University Professors received yesterday a copy of the following resolution made by the AAUP chapter at the University of Mississippi:

"Resolved, that we the members of the University of Mississippi chapter of the American Association of University Professors, deploring the tragic events centered about this campus during the past few weeks, do declare our belief that:

"1. While it is obvious that errors of judgment were made by those in authority on the University campus on Sunday, Sept. 30, we have evidence that the attempt of men in prominent positions to place all the blame for the riot on the United States marshals is not only unfair and reprehensible, but is almost completely false. We encourage an investigation by the proper authorities.

"2. Some news media in Mississippi have entertained irresponsible and secondhand stories in distortion of the facts, and have thereby helped to provoke a general state of confusion, alarm, and misdirected wrath. We join with those fellow Mississippians who resolved in Jackson, on Oct. 1, their hopes that all news media would "cooperate with sane, sensible, public utterances and . . . refrain from the publication of inflammatory statements.

"3. While all citizens of Mississippi and of the United States of America have the right to disagree in every peaceable and legal way with the law of the land as interpreted by the Supreme Court, it is the duty of every patriotic citizen to obey the law and encourage others to obey it. We believe in the use of courts and ballot-boxes to state our convictions; we oppose and deplore the useless employment of clubs and missiles against fellow citizens on behalf of any conviction whatsoever.

"4. Riots, weapons, and agitators have no place at a university. This university can better carry on its important part in the march toward programs and prosperity in Mississippi without any of these. With the cooperation of the overwhelming majority of law-abiding Mississippi citizens, the University of Mississippi can return in the near future to the normally peaceful conditions essential to education, to Mississippi, to the nation, and to constructive work for the future."

SAE's Defeated By Extra Point

Sigma Chi came from behind to shade Sigma Alpha Epsilon 7-6 in an intramural football game yesterday to continue its unbeaten string.

SAE drew first blood on a touchdown pass from Arne Mysse to Tom Schilz in the second period to take a 6-0 lead. The point after touchdown attempt failed.

SX was held scoreless until the fourth period when Gary Minster hit Rick Richter with a pass for the game-tying touchdown. Then Bunky Held kicked the point after touchdown to give SX the victory.

In other Clover Bowl action Sigma Nu trounced Alpha Tau Omega 34-0, Phi Delta Theta beat Theta Chi 12-0 and Sigma Phi Epsilon squeaked by Delta Sigma Phi 7-6.

"No-nonsense" is the word for Ron Nord.

MSU's new basketball coach began varsity basketball practice this week and already has a team that has what Nord describes as a "tremendous attitude."

There may be some more men trying out, but "they'll all have to run the mile before they can come to practice," says the coach. All the 18 returnees listed in the Kaimin yesterday (including 6-4 sophomore Francis Ricci, whose name was inadvertently omitted) made the six minute mile grade.

Is working out on the track a good way to get into shape for basketball? Nord says the value is twofold: it provides a long-range conditioning device and it gives the players a goal to work for before actual practice begins.

WHAT'S AHEAD?—MSU basketball coach Ron Nord stands on the steps of the Field House and ponders about what his first year at the helm of the Grizzlies will bring.

Nord is very serious, very determined to do a good job here. One gets the impression that he would unhesitatingly cut Bob Cousy off the team if Cousy loused up. Nord will lock the doors at varsity practice; he wants no interference when he's working with his squad.

Nord has good ideas. He's going to fast break, but not wildly. "Our fast break won't hurt us," he says. He is having his players use a special brand of weighted tennis shoes that he helped develop.

Nord is realistic. He calls our cage schedule "murderous." (It is.) He knows that the success of a few players will determine a lot about the Grizzly success.

The "tremendous" attitude of the players is summed up by the remark of one of our tall, talented sophomores: "Believe it or not, I've laid off the drinking and smoking. I really want to make this team."

Nord, to this player, is "tough," but a "straight-shooter."

The coach is thus far pleased with one Grizzly who has had mixed fortunes on and off the court the last two years. Steve Lowry, Nord says, is in good shape and determined to improve himself. Nord makes no bones about it; he says the big guy could well be the difference between a successful season and a mediocre one.

One man who may go out for the Silvertip hoop team has a familiar name: Don Morrison, a 6-3 senior from Troy. Morrison transferred here from Gonzaga two years ago and was leading pitcher on the MSU baseball team last spring. If Morrison makes the grade, he has the ability to become a fine forward or guard.

BYU Picked Over Silvertips In Dads' Day Game Saturday

The MSU Grizzlies will again play the role of the underdog, after two straight victories, when they take on the Brigham Young University Cougars in the annual Dads' Day football game here Saturday.

Pack leader of the Cougars is spectacular Eldon Fortie who leads the nation in total offense, is second in rushing and is third in passing.

The Cougar offense is based around Fortie, who handles the ball about 80 per cent of the time, Milt Schwenk, line coach said. Schwenk scouted the BYU-Utah game last Saturday.

He said BYU uses a modified single wing with a balanced line. This is the only team in the country that uses this particular type of offense, he said.

The Cougar's offensive power comes from the use of Fortie on off-tackle plays or end sweeps with a run or pass option.

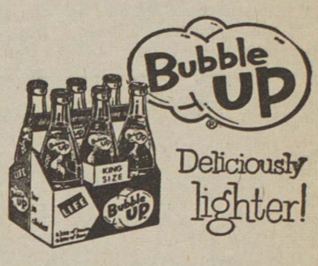

BYU is "very small, but very quick," Schwenk said. He said we would probably outweigh them as a whole but that the Cougars are a better team than their 1-4 record shows. He said that they could have won two of the close games they lost, referring to their 27-21 defeat by Arizona and their 13-12 defeat by George Washington University.

Another top player for BYU is center Mike Brady whom Schwenk calls a "terrific" line backer.

The Grizzlies will not be in full force for this game. More serious injuries were received against Weber last Saturday than at any time during the season.

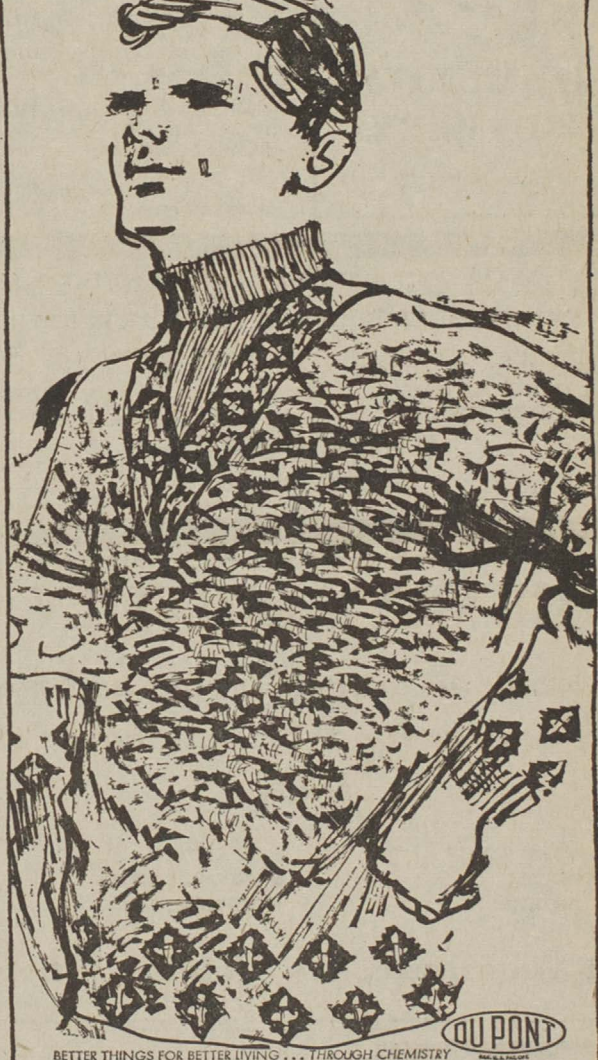

Those on the "doubtful" list are: halfback Steve Wood with a cracked rib, halfback Pat Dodson with a slight brain concussion, tackle Fred Calder with a chipped cheek bone, halfback Bill Martin with a sprained ankle and end Bill Ellison, still out with an injured knee.

Fathers of Grizzly football players will be honored at half-time ceremonies.

Council Turns Thumbs Down On Faculty Coffee Room Plan

The Faculty Association requested at a Student Union Executive Council meeting yesterday that they be given some space in the Lodge for a faculty coffee room.

The request was rejected by the council on the grounds that the faculty is not willing to help the Student Union, therefore the students should not have to pay for the faculty coffee room.

The council passed a proposal for a bulletin board, to be constructed immediately. The board will be made of aluminum and the backdrop will be covered with felt. It will be equipped with sliding glass doors that can be locked, and an enclosed lighting panel. The board will be used to post announcements from Central Board, information about the various committees, and will be used for displaying pictures of various queen candidates and other campus activities. The location of the board has not yet been determined.

Anne Bartlett reported that the College Inn Committee proposes that Friday night be 'couples only' night at the Inn. This proposal was approved by the Program Council and presented to the Executive Council for approval. Action on the proposal was tabled until next week.

WHAT TO WEAR TILL THE DOCTOR COMES

Now that you have enrolled and paid your fees and bought your books and found your way around campus and learned to hate your roommate, it is time to turn to the most important aspect of college life. I refer, of course, to clothes.

What does Dame Fashion decree for the coming school year? (Incidentally, Dame Fashion is not, as many people believe, a fictitious character. She was a real Englishwoman who lived in Elizabethan times and, indeed, England is forever in her debt. During the invasion of the Spanish Armada, Dame Fashion—not yet a Dame but a mere, unlettered country lass named Moll Flanders—during the invasion, I say, of the Spanish Armada, this dauntless girl stood on the white cliffs of Dover and turned the tide of battle by rallying the drooping morale of the British fleet with this stirring poem of her own composition:

Don't be gutless,
Men of Britain.
Swing your cullass,
We ain't quittin'.
Smash the Spanish,
Sink their boats,
Make 'em vanish,
Like a horse makes oats.
For Good Queen Bess,
Dear sirs, you gotta
Make a mess
Of that Armada.
You won't fail!
Knock 'em flat!
Then we'll drink ale
And stuff like that.

In 1589 she invented the laying here

As a reward for these inspirational verses Queen Elizabeth dubbed her a Dame, made her Poet Laureate, and gave her the Western Hemisphere except Duluth. But this was not the extent of Dame Fashion's service to Queen and country. In 1589 she invented the laying hen, and she was awarded a lifetime pass to Chavez Ravine. But she was not to end her days in glory. In 1591, alas, she was arrested for overtime jousting and imprisoned for thirty years in a butt of malmsey. This later became known as Guy Fawkes Day.)

But I digress. Let us get back to campus fashions. Certain to be the rage again this year is the cardigan (which, curiously enough, was named after Lord Cardigan, who commanded the English fleet against the Spanish Armada. The sweater is only one product of this remarkable Briton's imagination. He also invented the glottal stop, the gerund, and the eyelid, without which winking, as we know it today, would not be possible).

But I digress. The cardigan, I say, will be back, which is, I believe, cause for rejoicing. Why? Because the cardigan has nice big pockets in which to carry your Marlboro Cigarettes—and that, good friends, is ample reason for celebration as all of you will agree who have enjoyed Marlboro's fine, comfortable, mellow flavor and Marlboro's filter. So why don't you slip into your cardigan and hie yourself to your tobacconist for some good Marlboros? They come in soft pack or flip-top box. Cardigans come in pink for girls and blue for boys. © 1962 Max Shulman

Cardigans or pullovers—it's a matter of taste . . . And so is Marlboro a matter of taste—the best taste that can possibly be achieved by experienced grocers and blenders—by science, diligence, and tender loving care. Try a pack.
