20 EXTENSION COURSES
OFFERED AT UM THIS FALL

MISSOULA---

Twenty night courses will be offered this fall to residents of Missoula and vicinity through the University of Montana Extension Division.

Mary Margaret Courtney, extension supervisor, said adults and others wishing to take one or more of the courses will register for each course at the first meeting of each course. Fees will be paid at that time.

The extension course period begins Oct. 1 and ends Dec. 19. Only courses having a sufficient number of registrants will continue to be offered the remainder of the fall quarter, Miss Courtney indicated.

Most of the courses are being offered one night each week between the hours of 7-10 p.m.

Curriculum areas, course numbers and titles, credits available, and days, times, classrooms and instructors' names follow. Course numbers designated with an asterisk (*) are available for graduate or undergraduate credit.
