CHASE ACCEPTS LUBRECHT POST

MISSOULA, Mont.---

A native of West Brookfield, Mass., has been named to succeed Robert McKinsey as the supervisor of the University of Montana Lubrecht Experimental Forest near Greenough, according to Forestry Dean Arnold Bolle.

Dean Bolle said Alfred L. Chase will direct the operation, growth, and development of the 27,000-acre forest.

Chase is a 1964 Montana graduate with a B.S. in timber management. He received his M.S. in 1968 from the Missoula unit also in timber management.

He is married to the former Carolyn Holm of Ft. Benton.

McKinsey now is a forester with Tree Farmers Inc., a subsidiary of Intermountain Lumber Co. He is a 1949 UM graduate and was supervisor of Lubrecht since 1962.
