ORIGINAL PRINTS WILL BE SOLD AT UM MONDAY

London Grafica, Inc., will present an exhibition and sale of original graphics at the University of Montana Monday (Oct. 7) from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Fine Arts building, according to Rudy Autio, acting chairman of the Art Department.

The collection of some 500 items is touring colleges and universities throughout the United States. It contains lithographs, etchings, woodcuts and silk screens.

The exhibition includes 16th century manuscript pages; old masters, such as Rembrandt and Durer; 18th, 19th and 20th century examples; modern masters, such as Picasso, Braque and Chagall, and a wide range of contemporary prints commissioned by London Arts.

All the prints are originals; i. e., they have been printed directly from the plate or stone done by the artist.

The prints are for sale at prices from $10 to $3,000.

A London Arts representative will be on hand to answer questions about the prints or about graphic arts in general.
