DR. BRABB REPRESENTS
UM AT COMPUTER CONFERENCE

MISSOULA---

Dr. George J. Brabb, professor of business administration at the University of Montana, participated as a UM representative in the "Park City Conference on Computers in Undergraduate Education," sponsored recently by the National Science Foundation at Park City, Utah.

Purpose of the conference was to discuss all aspects of undergraduate education in computer science and computers and the facilities necessary to support educational use of computers. A report of the conference proceedings is expected early in 1969.
