10-2-1968

Dr. Brabb represents University of Montana at computer conference

University of Montana--Missoula. Office of University Relations

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.
Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases

Recommended Citation
https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/4021

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.
Dr. George J. Brabb, professor of business administration at the University of Montana, participated as a UM representative in the "Park City Conference on Computers in Undergraduate Education," sponsored recently by the National Science Foundation at Park City, Utah.

Purpose of the conference was to discuss all aspects of undergraduate education in computer science and computers and the facilities necessary to support educational use of computers. A report of the conference proceedings is expected early in 1969.

###