COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course introduces students to key theories and practical applications relating to intercultural communication. We will investigate the influence of our own culture on view of self and others. In addition, the following topics will be explored: international conflict, social networking, migrancy, and the effect of technology and mass media in the globalization of communication.

STUDENT PERFORMANCE OUTCOMES:

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Explain the role of history and identity in intercultural communication and the influence these have on our communication interactions with others.
2. Identify intercultural communication barriers that lead to interpersonal conflict.
3. Critically evaluate your own intercultural competence.
4. Understand how verbal and nonverbal communication is shaped by culture.

GRADING:

Exams (3) – 35% of grade

Inquiries – 25% of grade

Final Paper – 20% of grade

Substantive Discussions (4) – 20% of grade

GRADING SCALE: 100-90 (A), 89-80 (B), 79-70 (C), 69-60 (D), 59 and Below (F)

Exams

There will be three exams given over the course of the semester. They will consist of five essay questions worth 20 points each. The questions will require you to provide illustrations and explanations of various theories or concepts from our reading.

Inquiries

Students will be asked to complete three typed reflections during the course of the semester. These will pertain to your own cultural identity, our course readings, or out of class intercultural activities. They will require you to integrate the theories learned in the course into your personal positions or reflections.

Final Paper

The goal of the final paper is to help you critically evaluate your own culture while contemplating the concepts we have studied over the course of the semester. This final, reflective paper will require you to integrate outside research as well as course material into your writing.

Substantive Discussions

We will have four substantive graded discussions during the course of the semester. These will require you to integrate the reading into your thoughts and reflections on specific prompts that pertain to our intercultural encounters. These will be graded on quantity and quality of prompts. The specific grading criteria for these as well as a sample, excellent discussion is posted in the Week 1 folder.

ASSIGNMENT AND TEST MAKEUP POLICY:

No assignment or test make-ups will be allowed. Please plan ahead. All of the due dates for readings, assignments, and tests are listed in the course calendar. In addition, the week before assignments or tests are due, reminders will be posted in a weekly announcement. It is your responsibility to keep track of the course calendar and check announcements regularly.

If you encounter “technical difficulties” with a test, please notify me by email or phone the day of the test. I will verify the status of this issue in Moodle. It is important we reschedule the test within 48 hours of the test date.
