CHILDREN'S ART PROGRAM STARTS SATURDAY AT UM

Art classes for children from kindergarten through eighth grade will be taught Saturdays from 9 to 11 a.m. in the University of Montana Fine Arts building, starting Oct. 12 and ending Dec. 14.

Richard B. Reinholtz, UM associate professor of art, will direct the program, which covers several art media, including film making.

Children will be accepted in the order in which applications are received. A fee of $4.50 covers cost of materials. Further details may be obtained by calling the Art Department office.
