ART DISPLAY
AT UM

MISSOULA---

"Collegiate Scene Design, 1966" is now on display on the second floor of the University of Montana Fine Arts Building.

Richard H. James, acting chairman of the UM drama department said the display consists of 19 sketches and photographs of scene designs submitted for annual national competition.

Both the show and the contest are sponsored by the American Educational Theater Association and Southern Illinois University, James said.

He said the exhibit includes scene designs from universities all over the country. The first-place winner was a design from the play "Night of the Iguana", done by a graduate student from Yale University.

The display is free to the public and is open daily until 11 p.m. and on weekends until 5 p.m. The exhibit will be on display until Oct. 18.
