ATTENDANCE POLICY:

Because of the nature of the Culinary Arts Program, participation and teamwork is vital. It is primarily lab oriented and your daily participation is essential. This policy reflects industry standards. Our program and your peers value your attendance, participation, and professionalism.

- For every missed day of class, 5 points will be taken off of your final grade in addition to any points lost for class work, tests, sanitation, participation, etc.
- Due to the loss of curriculum and instruction time; if you miss 5 days or more, of any course, you will receive an incomplete (I) in the course and must take it again. Be aware that this does effect financial aid and grade point average.
- There are no acceptable excuses that will prevent the loss of points. This includes doctor’s notes, police reports, deaths, extenuating circumstances, or acts of God.
- This policy is final and no exceptions will be made.
- This policy applies to the entire Culinary Arts Curriculum that begins with the CULA rubric.

PARTICIPATION:

Students must demonstrate teamwork as consistent with industry. This is necessary as students contribute to the learning environment and become active learners by attending class and participating. Students who read text assignments prior to class will be equipped to participate and will obtain the most from this course. Participation points will be granted or denied depending on how the student exhibits enthusiasm, interest, teamwork, organization, and preparedness.

Daily production/participation will be assigned as follows:
- Production Schedule—1 pt
- Proper Uniform—1 pt
- Professionalism/Participation—1 pt
If students fail to produce any of the above requirements, students may be asked to go home resulting in a 5-point loss or leave the kitchen until the missing item(s) can be produced resulting in a 3-point deduction.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY:

All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or a disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review online at http://life.umt.edu/vpsa/student_conduct.php.

DISABILITY ACCOMMODATION:

Eligible students with disabilities will receive appropriate accommodations in this course when requested in a timely way. Please contact me after class or in my office. Please be prepared to provide a letter from your DSS Coordinator. For more information, visit the Disability Services website at http://www.umt.edu/dss/ or call 406.243.2243 (Voice/Text) or http://www.umt.edu/dss.

CULINARIAN CODE:

All students are expected to uphold all teachings of the American Culinary Federation’s Culinarian Code:

As a proud member of the American Culinary Federation, I pledge to share my professional knowledge and skill with all culinarians. I will place honor, fairness, cooperation and consideration first when dealing with my colleagues. I will keep all comments professional and respectful when dealing with my colleagues. I will protect all members from the use of unfair means, unnecessary risks and unethical behavior when used against them for another’s personal gain. I will support the success, growth, and future of my colleagues and this great federation.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK:

RECOMMENDED TEXTBOOK:

SUPPLIES: Knife kit, camera, calculator.

CELL PHONE POLICY: Cell phones are allowed in class only as a means to record photos for the final notebook.

UNIFORM POLICY: Students will be required to be in full Culinary Uniform to be accepted into class. Daily line-ups will take place and any student that is not in full uniform will be sent home and will lose participation points for the day.
