ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT STATEMENT: All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or disciplinary sanction by the University.

All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The code is available for review online at <http://www.umt.edu/SA/VP/SA/index.cfm/page/1321>.

COURSE NUMBER AND TITLE: LEG 282T CONTEMPORARY LEGAL ISSUES

PREREQUISITES: LEG 270T Civil Litigation or Consent of Instructor

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Capstone experience designed to investigate topical legal issues of immediate importance. Although the course has delineated structure, the nature of the course will allow both relevant concentrated focus as well as traditional disciplined examination of numerous areas of law practice and theory. The various pedagogical modules will offer students the opportunity to explore statutory structure, analyze case law, and draft legal forms.

CREDITS AWARDED UPON SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION: 2

REQUIRED TEXT: Torts Stories, by Robert L. Rabin and Stephen Sugarman

COURSE OBJECTIVES AND SKILLS DEVELOPMENT:

This course has three primary areas of study: Business Organizations, Torts, and Bankruptcy. For Business Organizations, students will learn the differences between the primary business entities and be able to distinguish their strengths and weaknesses. Students will research how to form business entities through the Secretary of State's office. For Law Office Management, students will identify and explain various concepts of traditional law firms and their operation. For Torts, students will learn to recognize and be able to distinguish specific intentional torts. Students will develop an understanding of Tort legal doctrine on aspects of negligence. For Bankruptcy, students will draft bankruptcy forms taken from local courts. Students will have sufficient knowledge to distinguish between the major chapters of bankruptcy.

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS:

For Business Organizations, students will learn in a traditional lecture setting with subject mastery quizzes weekly. In Torts, students will participate in class discussion relating to the text. Students will be required to research related cases and present their conclusions to the class. In Bankruptcy, students will find and draft and/or otherwise complete forms to initiate a bankruptcy proceeding in a local bankruptcy court

METHODS OF VALUATION:

Business Organizations: Secretary of State website project, student group project, Topic Quizzes and comprehensive exam.

Torts: Student/ group case presentation and exam.

Bankruptcy: Bankruptcy form completion and exam.
