CUTLINE FOR PICTURE OF YOUNG ARTISTS' STRING QUARTET

A concert Sunday (Dec. 8) at 8:15 p.m. in the University of Montana Recital Hall by the Montana Little Symphony (UM orchestra) will include the performance of the Schubert Quartet in D minor ("Death and the Maiden") by the Young Artists' String Quartet.

The organization, now in its fourth year, has performed for hundreds of Montana school children and has given formal evening concerts throughout the state. Members are selected from Montana's best young string players and are given full-fee scholarships by the UM Music School Foundation.

The concert presents Ann Bolen as soloist in the Bruch G minor Violin Concerto. She was chosen to appear with the orchestra through a competition conducted by the Montana Little Symphony Council. Miss Bolen, 14, is a freshman at Sentinel High School. Her parents are Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. Bolen.

The orchestra, conducted by Prof. Eugene Andrie, will play the Beethoven 8th Symphony. Ramsey Miller, assistant conductor, will lead the symphony in De Falla's "Ritual Fire Dance."

General admission is $1 and student admission is 50¢.
