R. R. BOREN ELECTED
PRESIDENT OF SPEECH
GROUP AT UTAH MEET

MISSOULA---

Dr. Robert R. Boren, an associate professor of speech communication and head of the University of Montana forensics program, recently was elected president of the Western Forensic Association (WFA).

Dr. Boren was elected to the post during the Western Speech Association Convention at Salt Lake City, Utah. His term of office is two years. He has just completed a two-year term as WFA vice-president.

The WFA is a professional organization made up of all high school and college personnel involved in competitive speech activities in 13 western states, including Alaska and Hawaii.
