COURSE DESCRIPTION

This is the second Foundation Integrative Seminar in which a student is concurrently placed in a practicum setting. This course provides students with continuing information and support to effectively engage in graduate education that will lead to competence in practice from a generalist perspective. The course guides students in the integration of concurrent classroom content with practicum experiences. Students in this course receive consultation and guidance from the instructor and from student peers, and are expected to focus on their own professional development through the completion and articulation of learning objectives and the incorporation of supervisory feedback into improved skills and increased knowledge for practice.

RELATION TO OTHER COURSES

The Foundation Integrative Seminar 2 continues to build on concurrently taken foundation courses, including HBSE II, History of Social Welfare Policy, and Practice with Groups and communities. It requires students to articulate knowledge, skills, and roles of the professional social worker in a particular practicum setting and link theory and practice by drawing on foundation course content. This course sets the foundation for an advanced concentration practicum that will build on the generalist nature of the foundation practicum.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Students will:

1. Continue to demonstrate competence in group dynamics through attendance, professional participation in a seminar format, and contributions to the professional growth of student peers.

2. Demonstrate beginning competence in incorporating supervisory feedback into professional practice in the practicum setting.

3. Demonstrate the ability to satisfactorily communicate orally and in writing as required by the practicum agency.

4. Demonstrate the ability to conduct assessments, design interventions, and evaluate practice with diverse individuals and populations at risk.

5. Demonstrate the ability to apply social work values to address ethical dilemmas in the practicum setting.

6. Critique conceptual and theoretical frameworks guiding practice in the practicum setting.
7. Present a teaching-learning demonstration that integrates theory and practice relevant to a key problem, intervention process, or issue addressed in the practicum setting.

8. Utilize a generalist perspective on social work practice at a variety of intervention levels.

9. Identify and major social policies and current legislative action impacting communities, the practicum agency and its clients.

10. Articulate the linkage among their practicum learning objectives, professional goals, and MSW program objectives.

ASSIGNMENTS

The second practicum seminar combines topical discussions and student presentation. For each of the topical discussions listed below, each seminar member is expected to identify a resource or reference relevant to the topic and share that resource with other members of the seminar. The resource may link practicum-related themes to the topic, draw on relevant materials from other courses, or provide information regarding relevant outside sources. These materials will be used to develop a group resource bank and to stimulate discussion in seminar. Each member of the seminar will also be assigned one seminar session in which s/he carries out a 50-minute teaching-learning presentation addressing an aspect of his or her practicum. The presentation may focus on particular intervention modalities, ethical issues, organizational analyses, etc. The presentation should relate directly to students learning goals and skill development.

The presentation should include the following:

1) Preparation: The week prior to the his/her presentation student provides class with one scholarly article relevant to theme of presentation;
2) Introduction: Student presents a brief introduction to the practicum that gives the audience a sense of “a day in the life” of a social worker in this context.
3) Presentation: topic should address both theoretical and practice issues.
4) Discussion: presenter facilitates linking presentation and reading.
5) Evaluation: Seminar members provide feedback to presenter.

GRADING

The Foundation Integrative Seminar 2 is graded pass/no pass. Students will be evaluated on their attendance and participation, their contributions to the group process and the professional development of student peers, and their presentation.
