SEN. HATFIELD TO SPEAK AT U CENTER GRAND OPENING

MISSOULA, Mont.---

Sen. Mark O. Hatfield, R-Ore., will be one of several prominent speakers featured Feb. 7-9 at the University of Montana during the Grand Opening Weekend of the new $4.3-million University Center (UC).

Slated to join Hatfield in the weekend's grand opening ceremonies in conjunction with the 76th anniversary of the University will be Gov. Forrest Anderson, UM President Robert <sup>T A</sup> Pantzer and Edward J. Leary of Butte, the president of the Associated Students at UM (ASUM).

Hatfield, 46, a former Oregon governor and a native of Dallas, Ore., will speak at 8 p.m. Feb. 7 in the UC Five Valleys Ballroom. The address is open to the public.

Anderson, Pantzer and Leary are scheduled to address their remarks to news media personnel, a number of political leaders and other guests during a noon luncheon <sup>Feb 8</sup> The luncheon, by invitation only, will be in the Five Valleys Ballroom, which accommodates 1,500. The 5:30 p.m. <sup>Feb 8</sup> Buffet dinner in the ballroom is open to the public.

In the same ballroom Feb. 9, Neil Diamond, a young musician-entertainer, will be featured in a public concert. The Diamond act begins at 8:15 p.m.

Guided tours of the Center for invited guests will be from 9-11 a.m. Feb. 8. Public tours are scheduled that date from 1:30-4:30 p.m.

Other entertainment during the weekend includes a Live Art Show under the direction of Edd Blackler of Missoula. The show, which starts at 8:15 p.m. Feb. 8, is open to the public and features a band, singers and dancers.

A 10-state regional art display entitled Survey '69 will be in the 2nd floor lounge-gallery area in the southwest corner of the Center.
