WASHINGTON DIRECTOR WILL SPEAK
ON HYDRONUCLEAR POWER

MISSOULA, Mont.---

The director of the Washington State Planning and Community Affairs Agency will speak at the sixth hydrology lecture sponsored by the University of Montana School of Forestry.

Dr. Richard H. Slavin will lecture on state planning and state-federal cooperation relative to hydronuclear power development in the Pacific Northwest, Wednesday (Feb. 12) at 1 p.m. in Chem-Pharm 109.

Dr. Slavin, a former college instructor, is a graduate of Bethany College and earned his Ph.D. from the University of Pittsburg in economics.

He served on the Bethany staff for eight years before he was elected mayor of the town of Bethany. In Bethany he also served as secretary of the county planning commission.

In June 1963, he was appointed a research economist with the University of West Virginia Office of Research and Development. In 1964 he was appointed director of the University of West Virginia Graduate Center.

Dr. Slavin has taught at the University of Pittsburg, Ohio University, Indiana University and the Army School of Finance in Indianapolis, Ind.

Prior to his appointment with the Washington State Planning and Community Affairs Agency, Dr. Slavin was an assistant to the Governor of West Virginia for Program Development.

He was the recipient of a Ford Foundation Fellowship in 1962 and served in the U.S. Navy in World War II. Presently, he is a major in the Army Reserve.

The public is invited to attend the lecture.
