CHOIR WILL PERFORM
U COMPOSER'S WORK

The University Choir, assisted by the Newman Choir, will present a free public concert Sunday (Feb. 16) at 8:15 p.m. in the University of Montana Recital Hall.

"Arise, O Lord," a choral work by Michael Rosbarsky, UM graduate student in music, will be performed by the Newman Choir. The 16-member choir will be accompanied by a percussion ensemble made up of George Andrix, Steve Armstrong, Kristin Forssen, Briant Oblad, Steve Van Meter and Rosbarsky.

The 46-voice University Choir will sing works of other 20th-century composers, including "Lamentations of Jeremiah" by Alberto Ginastera, "Taboo to Boot" by Vernon Duke, "Tree of Sorrow" by Carlos Chavez, and "Lillium Regis" by Paul Creston.

The concert will close with "The Emperor of Ice Cream" by Roger Reynolds, a lively number containing some surprises for the audience.

Dr. Joseph Mussulman is director of both choirs, and Charles Miller is assistant director. Betty Waddell is Newman Choir accompanist.
