BPA ECONOMIST TO SPEAK AT UM

MISSOULA, Mont.---

The chief economist for the Bonneville Power Administration and economics lecturer at Portland State College will present the seventh University of Montana hydrology lecture sponsored by the School of Forestry.

Wednesday (Feb. 19, 1969)

Myron Katz will speak on the economic implications of the changing emphasis from hydroelectric to nuclear power in the Pacific Northwest. His presentation will begin at 1 p.m. in Chem-Pharm 109 with a question-answer session following.

Katz is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and has taken graduate work at Northwestern University, the University of Chicago, University of Oregon and the University of Washington.

He taught at Lewis and Clark College, served as a consulting economist and worked as an economist for J. Henry Helser and Co., Allied High Commission for Germany and the Bonneville Power Administration.

Katz was one of the speakers during the 1967 water lecture series sponsored by the UM School of Forestry and is a member of the American Economic Association, Western Economic Association, American Statistical Association and Western Governmental Research Association.

The public is invited to attend the lecture.
