TWO UM COEDS TO COMPETE
AT NATIONAL CONCLAVE

MISSOULA---

Two University of Montana coeds will compete for national recognition during the National Arnold Air Society Conclave at New Orleans March 31-April 3 as UM representatives of Angel Flight, women's auxiliary to the society.

Charlene Ann Barlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barlow of Stevensville, will vie with 16 coeds from other campuses for the title of National General in Angel Flight.

The other UM coed, Linda Fern Anderson of Missoula, will compete with 16 other coeds for three national Angel Flight scholarships. In all, 17 areas from throughout the nation will be represented in the two contests.

Both UM coeds represent area H-2, which includes 11 universities in Montana, Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

Miss Barlow, a freshman at UM, recently was named Little Colonel during the north-western conclave of Air Force ROTC Arnold Air Societies and Angel Flights at the University of Idaho, Moscow. Miss Anderson, a junior who is Angel Flight commander at UM this year, also was named to the scholarship competition during the Moscow event.
