CREDIT UNION OFFICERS
NAMED AT U OF MONTANA

MISSOULA---

Dr. Richard E. Shannon, an economics professor at the University of Montana, has been reelected president of the UM Federal Credit Union (UMFCU) at a meeting of the organization's board of directors.

Robert L. Clark, UM physical plant warehouse foreman, was named first vice-president, and Jesse K. Dove, director of nonacademic personnel on the Missoula campus, was elected second vice-president and also was named membership officer. Clark was appointed to the education committee.

Fred A. Henningsen, accounting and finance professor, was reelected treasurer, and Edgar F. Niethold, assistant to the UM food services director, will continue in the UMFCU secretarial post for another year.

Other officers named include Dr. Ludvig G. Browman, zoology professor, formerly first vice-president, chairman of the education committee; Dr. Frank A. Pettinato, associate professor of pharmacy, education committee member; Hubert R. Breuninger, associate professor of accounting and finance, chairman of supervisory committee, and Frank S. Shandorf, physical plant office manager, and Mrs. Mary L. Nicol, retired, who were named to the supervisory committee.
