ECONOMIST TO SPEAK
AT UM APRIL 9
IN S & H SERIES

MISSOULA---

A principal economist for the Midwest Research Institute, Kansas City, Mo., will be guest lecturer April 9 at the University of Montana in a continuing series supported by the S & H Foundation, sponsored by the Sperry and Hutchinson Co. with further support from the Missoula Chamber of Commerce.

Next week's lecturer will be Bruce Macy, who will discuss "Science, Business and Regional Resource Development" at 8 p.m., April 9 in the UM Music Recital Hall. The lecture is open to the public without charge. A reception for Macy follows the lecture.

Macy will be the fourth lecturer to visit UM during the current academic year under a $2,000 grant from the S & H Foundation Inc. and an additional sum of $500 from the local Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. George J. Brabb, UM professor of business administration and lecture series coordinator, said, "This lecture and the final lecture May 7 are intended to present the benefits and problems associated with the full economic utilization of natural and human resources in Montana."

the
In/May 7 lecture, Dr. Alfred Etter, an ecologist with the Defenders of Wild Life, Aspen, Colo., will discuss "Dilemmas of Development."
