Art classes for children of pre-primary through high-school age will be conducted at the University of Montana from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. on Saturdays from April 12 through May 31, according to Richard B. Reinholtz of the UM art faculty.

Instruction is given in photography and film making, drawing, painting, printmaking, assemblage and sculpture, and art appreciation and awareness.

The program is open to all children from the age of three on in the greater Missoula area. Advance arrangements for taking the classes may be made by telephoning the Art Department office, 243-4181. A fee of $4 for the eight sessions is payable Saturday, April 12.
