ADULT EDUCATION CENTER
TO HAVE OPEN HOUSE SUNDAY

MISSOULA---

The University of Montana Adult Education Center, 401 South Ave. East, will host an open house Sunday, from 1-8 p.m.

Roger Running Crane of Browning, president of the center's Student Council, said the program is sponsored by the Student Council and will feature displays from various Indian reservations and work that has been carried out at the center during the past year.

Refreshments will be served during the open house and Indian students participating in the UM training program will be on hand to answer any questions the public may have about operations at the center.

The center has been operating in association with the University since August of 1967. Training and educational programs featured at the center have been expanded and enrollment has increased from 32 in 1967 to 65 now. A total of 225 have been enrolled altogether since the program was launched.
