In the last meet activity of the spring before the Big Sky Conference spring championships May 16-17 in Missoula, the Montana Grizzly track team will take its successful squad to Bozeman Saturday to battle Montana State in a dual meet.

The Grizzlies will be heavily favored to win on the strength of the running events, but will take their lumps in the field contests.

Grizzly coach Harley Lewis, who says his team is stronger than it was last year when it bounced the Cats 104-41, nevertheless thinks this year's meet will be closer than that one.

"The Bobcats have some fine men competing for them, especially in those field events," he said. "If they had more strength in running events, they could be real tough overall."

Montana entries should have a shot at breaking some of the existing dual meet records. For a starter, Roy Robinson will be trying to break his own mark of 9.5 seconds in the 100-yard dash.

Mick Harrington, Missoula senior, has bettered the meet record of 1:52.7 he holds several times this year, and the three-mile mark of 14:47.4 set by Fred Friesz of UM two years ago could fall to Grizzly soph Wade Jacobsen.

Montana State's Eric Hefty could snap the mark of 14.5 seconds he holds in the high hurdles, and Robinson could do the same. Grizzly Tim Stark has a good chance to lower his mark of 52.2 seconds in the intermediates.

Montana's 440-yard relay team should break the 41.5-second mark set by a Grizzly unit last year.

Spencer Sartorius of Montana holds the shot put record of 53-2, and that will be challenged by Bobcat Frank Shone and Grizzly Mark Doane. In the discus, the record of 164-6 3/4 held by UM's Dick Doyle since 1950 could fall to Grizzly Carl Erland, who has gone over 166 several times this year.

TIP TRACKMEN--2

The record almost certain to go is Mike Lyngstad's javelin mark of 233-8. He has been warming up with better throws than that this spring.

Montana's probable entries are:

100---Robinson, Bill Zins, Larue Nelson; 220---Bill Zins, Randy Hahn, Nelson;
