MASTER'S THESIS SHOW
OPENS SATURDAY AT UM

Edward G. Groenhout's master's thesis show will be on exhibit in the Copper Commons of the University Center May 17 through 31, according to Rudy Autio, acting chairman of the University of Montana Art Department.

The exhibition of paintings partially fulfills requirements for the master of fine arts degree. Groenhout served as a teaching assistant in the Art Department while working for the graduate degree, which will be conferred in June. He also earned a bachelor's degree, with high honors, from the University.

Groenhout will become executive director of the Montana Arts Council on July 1.
