DRUGS, AFRO-AMERICAN STUDIES ON UM COUNCIL'S MEETING AGENDA SATURDAY

MISSOULA--

University of Montana faculty and staff will discuss topics ranging from the UM "Drug Education Program" to the "Afro-American Studies Program" Saturday during the annual spring meeting of the UM Council of 50.

Thirty-nine Council of 50 members from throughout the state are scheduled to be on hand to hear about and discuss more than a half dozen topics involving various campus activities.

Registration for the one-day meeting begins at 8:30 a.m. Saturday. Meeting sessions will be in the University Center Gold Oak Room. A 12:15 p.m. luncheon is slated for the University Center Montana Rooms.

Council of 50 members meet on the Missoula campus twice a year to learn more about University activities and to relate this information to their home areas. Men and women on the Council represent a variety of professions and occupations and they serve as Council members three years.

Speakers and topics on Saturday's agenda include John L. Delano, executive director of the UM Alumni Association, "Speakers Bureau"; Dr. Henry G. Bugbee, chairman of the UM philosophy department, "Department of Religious Studies"; Dr. Robert L. Van Horne, School of Pharmacy dean, "Drug Education Program."

Dr. Harold Babb, psychology department chairman, "Program of Department of Psychology"; Lawrence D. Stuart, director of UM Information Services, "New Publications"; Dr. Charles W. Bolen, dean, School of Fine Arts, "Montana Center for The Arts Report"; Ulysses S. Doss, instructor of humanities, "Afro-American Studies Program."

Dr. Warren J. Brier, School of Journalism dean, "School of Journalism"; Dr. Charles D. Parker, chairman of speech pathology and audiology, "Service of Speech and Hearing Clinic." A general discussion is also scheduled. The meeting adjourns at 4:30 p.m.

Members of the Council of 50 slated to attend Saturday's meeting include Thomas H. Boone, Don Delaney, Mrs. Arthur Doull, George P. Lambros, Richard Rubie, Eric Skibsted, Larry F. Smith and John H. Toole, Missoula; John W. Dowling Jr., Hamilton; Norris Nichols, Stevensville; Emmett C. Angland, Robert H. Bennetts, Harry P. Mitchell, Joseph G. Mudd and Joseph Thiebes Jr., Great Falls.
