NHS BANQUET
TO BE HELD
FRIDAY AT UM

MISSCULA---

Dr. George Mathes, a member of the Board of Directors of the National Honor Society, will deliver the main address at a 6:30 p.m. NHS banquet at the University of Montana, Missoula

Dr. Mathes' speech, "Where Do We Go From Here," is part of a program in which 20 outstanding high school seniors will receive NHS cash awards to begin undergraduate work at UM this fall.

Homer Anderson, UM director of admissions, will be toastmaster for the banquet, to be held in the Gold Oak Room of the UM University Center.

Musical entertainment will be provided by the UM School of Music and Dr. Earl Lory, UM academic vice-president will give the welcoming address and present the $100 awards to the selected students, in recognition of their superior scholastic achievements and leadership activities during their high school years.

Alpha Lambda Delta and Phi Eta Sigma freshmen scholastic honoraries will be the host groups at the banquet and special comments will be made by Deborah Marie Thomas, president of Alpha Lambda Delta; Robert Keith Strong, president of Phi Eta Sigma; Gary Lee Brook of the UM Circle K Club and Carol D. Kramer, Miss UM for 1969.

Delegations from high schools across Montana are expected to attend the NHS meeting which will continue into Saturday, May 24, with a model NHS ritual presented by Great Falls High School from 9-10 a.m. Saturday.
