ARMY ROTC TO HOST
CALIFORNIA LECTURER
IN U OF MONTANA ADDRESS

MISSOULA--

Dr. Harold W. Rood, an associate professor of government at Claremont Men's College, Claremont, Calif., will discuss "The Changing World and The Military Implications" Wednesday at the University of Montana.

The lecture, which is third in the Army ROTC Academic Enrichment Program on the Missoula campus, will be at 7 p.m. in room 11 of the UM Liberal Arts Building.

Dr. Rood, who also is an associate professor of international relations at Claremont Graduate School, has studied at several universities, including Stanford and the University of California, Shrivensham American University and Oxford University in England.

Wednesday's lecture is open to the public without charge. Maj. John A. Krimmer, an associate professor of military science at UM, is program coordinator.

Two Missoula County High School students each has received a $200 scholarship award for study this fall at the University of Montana.

Recipients are Cheryl Lynne Rouland, Rt. 2, a student at Sentinel High School, and Steven Allen Bennyhoff, 434 Brooks, who is enrolled at Hellgate High. Both have been accepted for enrollment by the University to study in the School of Business Administration. The scholarships are from the Western Federal Savings and Loan Association, Missoula. Miss Rouland's award honors the late William N. Dixon Sr.

The grant to Bennyhoff is the R. J. Fremou Memorial Award.
