YOUTH RECREATION PROGRAM
PLANNED THIS SUMMER AT UM

MISSOULA---

The Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation at the University of Montana will sponsor a new youth recreation program this summer.

Program instructions will be given during summer session June 23-Aug. 22 for boys and girls 8-12 years old from 9:30 a.m. to noon Monday through Friday in the Men's Gymnasium on the Missoula campus.

Those eligible to participate include children of faculty, students and the general public.

Two sessions are scheduled to coincide with the summer period--June 23-July 23 and the other July 24-Aug. 22. Cost per child is $7.50 per week or $30 for a 4¼-week session.

Instructors are two men who are completing requirements for their master's degrees-- David A. Dainty of Toronto, Ont., Can., and Dale L. Stagg of Salt Lake City, Utah.

Activities will include gymnastics, soccer, volleyball, badminton, swimming and other team and individual sports.

The UM Men's Gymnasium and Pool and all outdoor recreational facilities including the tennis courts will be available for use by the youngsters.

Additional information may be obtained by phoning the summer session office on campus at 243-2162. Dr. Walter C. Schwank, summer session director, said advanced registration would expediate setting up the summer program.
