Requirements

Students are required to

- (a) attend classes and plenary lectures regularly and participate in group discussions. Excessive unexplained absences (more than three) will result in a zero for class attendance and participation
- (b) keep up with the assigned reading and bring the text to class
- (c) write a short paper (5-6 pages, double-spaced typed), due October 13 in class
- (d) rewrite the paper, possibly extending it to include more texts (8-10 pages), due November 17 in class
- (e) take a final exam on December 16, which will cover both texts and plenary lectures, and in which the student will be required to focus on texts not covered in her/his papers.

Quizzes on texts and plenary lectures may be given in class from time to time. Written responses to the video films may also be assigned in class.

Topics for papers must be decided in individual consultation with me. Sample topics: Parent-child relationships; Sibling relationships; Journeys and Returns; Ideas of Love/Friendship/Marriage; The Non-human/Natural World; Violence and its Resolution; Revenge and Forgiveness; Ideas of the Divine.

Grades

The short paper will be worth 20%, the revised paper 20%, attendance and participation (this includes class assignments) 20%, and the final exam 40%.

If you have any condition, such as a physical or learning disability, that will make it difficult for you to complete the work as outlined, please notify me by September 10.
