Course Goals/Objectives: This class requires the students to assess film from three different perspectives:

- 1) Aesthetics - Students will learn the conventions involved in putting together a film, and the aesthetic commitments involved in using these conventions.
- 2) Ethics - Many, if not most films, have at their center some ethical issue or dilemma. Students will learn to identify, characterize and write clearly about the filmic expressions of these dilemmas.
- 3) Politics of Film - Students will learn to be critical viewers of film and to look for the social significance in the apparently neutral image and in the medium itself.
