SPANISH COURSE OFFERED
JUNE 24 AT UM

MISSOULA--

Twenty hours of noncredit instruction in Spanish conversation at minimum cost is being offered as a public service by Kenneth C. Brett, UM foreign language lecturer.

"The course," Brett explained, "is for those with little or no knowledge of Spanish. Emphasis will be on practical situation dialogues in ability and common interest groups."

Brett said total cost per person for the course would be approximately $35 if a minimum of 10 students enroll for the five-week program.

Class sessions offered through UM Continuing Education are scheduled from 7 to 9 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays beginning June 24. Registration will be in room 342 of the UM Liberal Arts Building.

Further information may be obtained by phoning Brett at 243-4321. Evenings he may be reached at 543-3989.
