GRANT AWARDED TO ARCHEOLOGISTS
AT UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

MISSOULA--

A group of archeologists from the Department of Anthropology at the University of Montana plans to acquire and maintain a central depository for statewide archeology records.

A grant totaling $15,800, has been awarded to the UM anthropology department by the National Science Foundation for use in the project.

Dr. Floyd W. Sharrock, chairman of the UM Department of Anthropology, is director of the project.

The study is entitled "Montana Archeological Survey Unit." The grant will cover about one year's work and be self-supporting thereafter.

Research will be done in cooperation with the U.S. Forest Service, the Bureau of Land Management and the State Department of Highways.
