LUCAS TO SPEAK TO GIRLS STATE
SATURDAY NIGHT AT UM

MISSOULA--

James P. Lucas, Miles City, speaker of the Montana House of Representatives, will address more than 300 Girls State representatives at the University of Montana, Saturday.

Girls State graduation ceremonies for the high school coeds will follow his address, which is slated for 8 p.m. in the University Theater. The girls will receive pins and two delegates to Girls Nation will be named Saturday night.

The girls will leave for home Sunday morning following breakfast at the University Center. They will have spent a total of nine days at UM learning about their duties and responsibilities as citizens of the mythical "Treasure State."

Mrs. Ralph Sluys, Great Falls, directed the 22nd annual Girls State, the first one ever held at UM. Mrs. Edna Hinman, Helena, was the publicity chairman.
