203 STUDENTS PARTICIPATING
IN MONTANA FINE ARTS CAMP
AT UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

MISSOULA, Mont.--

The 203 students participating in the Montana High School Fine Arts Camp since Aug. 4 at the University of Montana have been keeping pace with a busy schedule.

A list of events for the remainder of the fine arts camp, which lasts through Aug. 15, indicates the students will be just as busy during the days left in the annual event.

Daily routines for the students have included class sessions in music, dance, voice and art subject, with instructions being given by talented University instructors and several out-of-town guest artists.

Guests artists participating in program instructions include Zaven Melikian, assistant concertmaster for the San Francisco Symphony and the San Francisco Opera Orchestras; Walter Green, principal bassoonist for the same two San Francisco organizations, and Frederick J. Nelson, Libby, supervisor of music and band director at Libby High School.

During the Montana High School Fine Arts Camp, Melikian is specializing in violin, viola and chamber music, and Green is teaching orchestra. Nelson is teaching band during the camp.

Classes are scheduled between 8 a.m. and 4:40 p.m. weekdays. Many of the students have used their free time on weekends to participate in practice sessions. Most classes are held in the University Music Building.

The two-week program is under the direction of George D. Lewis, an associate professor of music at UM.

Joanna Lester Sievers, a 1963 UM graduate and renowned actress, dancer and singer, will present a soprano vocal recital on Tuesday (Aug. 12) at 8:15 p.m. in the Music Recital Hall (MRH). Fine Arts camp participants will be required to attend.

A camp chamber music concert on Wednesday (Aug. 13) at 8:15 p.m. in the MRH will feature members of the orchestra performing on oboes, violins, violas and cellos. On Thursday (Aug. 14), a piano workshop concert will include about 12 piano students in solos and duets at 8:15 p.m. in MRH.

"Night Must Fall," a Masquer Theater summer offering, begins Wednesday (Aug. 13) and will feature Emlyn Williams' mystery thriller with a cast of about 15 drama students participating in the fine arts camp. The play, to continue through Saturday (Aug. 16), will be at 8:15 p.m. daily in the MRH.

Final concert of the fine arts camp will be at 7:30 p.m. Friday (Aug. 15) at the University Theater. It will feature selections by the camp band, orchestra, and dance and choral groups.

About 50 students are expected to be selected from the fine arts camp to remain for a third week of fine arts studies as part of the "Montana High School Artists' Camp" Aug. 18-22.

Ruth Silvius, a 1968 UM alumna from Fort Benton, will present a soprano recital on Sunday (Aug. 17) at 8:15 p.m. in the MRH as part of the artists' camp.

A bassoon and violin recital by Green and Melikian will highlight events Tuesday (Aug. 19) at 8:15 p.m. in the MRH.

Final artists' camp concert on Friday (Aug. 22) at 7:30 p.m. in the MRH will feature a performance by students specializing in string, brass, woodwind and piano.

All scheduled events are open to the public as well as to participants in the fine arts and artists' camps.
