ACTIVITIES CONTINUE AT UM
IN CONJUNCTION WITH TWO
FINE ARTS CAMPS

MISSOULA--

A number of artistic and entertaining performances open to the public will be highlighted the remainder of this week and next week at the University of Montana.

The events are in conjunction with two fine arts camps at UM, the Montana High School Fine Arts Camp Aug. 4-15, and the Montana High School Artists' Camp Aug. 18-22.

"Night Must Fall," a Masquer Theater summer presentation of Emlyn Williams' mystery thriller, began Wednesday (Aug. 13) and will continue through Saturday (Aug. 16) at 8:15 p.m. in the Masquer Theater. The play has a cast of about 15 drama students participating in the fine arts camp.

Final concert of the fine arts camp will be at 7:30 p.m. Friday (Aug. 15) at the University Theater. It will highlight the camp band, orchestra, and dance and choral groups.

Prior to the Montana High School Artists' Camp Aug. 18-22, Ruth Silvius, a 1968 UM alumna from Fort Benton, will present a soprano recital on Sunday (Aug. 17) at 8:15 p.m. in the recital hall.

On Tuesday (Aug. 19) Zaven Melikian and Walter Green, guest artists from the San Francisco Symphony and San Francisco Opera Orchestras, will present a bassoon and violin recital at 8:15 p.m. in the recital hall.

Final artists' camp concert on Friday (Aug. 22) at 7:30 p.m. in the recital hall will feature a performance by students specializing in string, brass, woodwind and piano.
