DONALD GRANT SPEAKS
AT INITIATION DINNER
OF DELTA TAU KAPPA

MISSOULA--

Donald Grant, an honors graduate of Edinburgh University, Edinburgh, Scotland, and interpreter of European foreign policy, spoke at the initiation dinner Thursday (Aug. 14) of the University of Montana chapter of Delta Tau Kappa honorary.

Grant himself is a member of Delta Tau Kappa, international social science honor society. The dinner group convened at the Palace Hotel.

Grant, a worldwide traveler, told of his early life in northern Scotland, revealing his proficiency in golf as well as in international and intercultural affairs. He was pioneer of the student relief work which grew into the World University Service after WWI.

His talk was an abridgement of his evening lecture entitled, "Showdown, Russia and Czechoslovakia," in the University Center.

UM students accepted were Roger E. Biniek, Carol C. Matchett, Mae Nan Robinson, and Geraldine Anne Watson, Missoula; William Darrell French, Helena, and Steve Kapcsos, UM graduate assistant in education, San Diego, Calif. Honorary member of the UM faculty inducted was Milton James Kenneth Reimer, UM professor of education, native of Crookston, Minn.

Dr. Harold Tascher, UM professor of social welfare, will serve as faculty sponsor to the honorary this fall and winter in the place of the departing Dr. Kenneth V. Lottich, UM professor of education.
