271 UM GRADUATES
LISTED FOLLOWING
SUMMER SESSION

MISSOULA, Mont.--

A record total of 271 men and women completed requirements for various degrees during summer session recently at the University of Montana.

Five students completed requirements for their doctoral degrees while 133 finished their master's degrees and 133 completed bachelor's degree work. All will be eligible to participate in formal commencement exercises next spring on the Missoula campus.

Mrs. Dorothy M. DeMiller, UM admissions and graduation assistant, said the previous record figure for those completing degree requirements at UM during the summer was a year ago, when a total of 255 was recorded. Other figures from previous summers include 230 in 1967, 223 in 1966 and 207 in 1965.

Among those completing requirements for their doctorates are:

James P. Allison, Northwood, Iowa, psychology. Allison will teach in the Department of Psychology at Knox College, Galesburg, Ill., this fall.

Bert Cunin, New York, N.Y., psychology. Cunin will teach psychology beginning this fall at Alfred University, Alfred, N.Y.

Eugene E. Falkenberg, Lethbridge, Alta., Can., education. Falkenberg will be administrative assistant for administrative affairs at the University of Lethbridge, Lethbridge, this fall.

Stanley A. Grout, Springfield, Ore., education. Grout recently accepted appointment as the new dean of education at Western Montana College, Dillon.

Matthew R. Merrens, New York, N.Y., psychology. Merrens will teach in the Department of Psychology at Western Illinois University, Macomb, Ill., beginning this fall.
