JOSH WHITE TO PERFORM
AT UM THURSDAY

MISSOULA--

Josh White, folk singer, actor and arrangement artist, is the first fall quarter entertainer scheduled to appear at the University of Montana.

He will perform at 8:15 p.m. Thursday (Sept. 25) in the University Center Ballroom. The performance is sponsored by the Program Council of the Associated Students at UM.

White has entertained in coffee houses, folk rooms and night clubs throughout the country. He arranges many of the songs he sings and recently has released an album which includes his arrangements.

Each year White travels to more than 150 colleges and universities to entertain students. Also an actor, White has appeared in five Broadway plays and has starred in one off-Broadway production.

White has been a guest on TV programs such as "Hootenanny," "Ben Jarod" and "The Armstrong Circle Theater." In addition, he has traveled extensively abroad, appearing on European television.

Tickets for the concert are on sale at the UC Information Desk and at The Cartwheel. Admission prices for the general public are $1.50 or $2.00. Student tickets are $1 or $1.50.
