FORESTER AWARDED FELLOWSHIP
AT UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

MISSOULA---

Peter Chin, a graduate student at the University of Montana School of Forestry, has been awarded a $5,000 Weyerhaeuser Corporation Fellowship in wood chemistry.

Dr. Fred Shafizadeh, professor of chemistry and forestry and director of the UM Wood Chemistry Laboratory, said Chin received the award in recognition of his high academic achievement.

The fellowship will enable Chin to study for his doctorate in wood chemistry.

Born in the Republic of China, Chin studied at National Taiwan University where he earned a bachelor's degree in agriculture. In 1966 he came to the U.S. and entered the UM forestry school, which granted him a Master of Science degree in forestry in the spring of 1969.

Chin, his wife and their two children live in Missoula.
