MISSOULA--

UM President Robert T. Pantzer extended his best wishes today (Friday) to Coach Jack Swarthout and his undefeated gridders as the Grizzlies depart for Bozeman and the traditional encounter with the MSU Bobcats.

"I join other administrators, faculty, students, alumni and friends who will be pulling for the Grizzlies to bring home a long-awaited win over the Bobcats and the first conference championship in the history of this institution," President Pantzer said.

"The eyes of Montana and the region annually focus on this contest. I have every confidence the Grizzly team will reflect credit on this institution in view of this vast audience.

"I also urge the many enthusiastic UM fans traveling to Bozeman to consider this huge spotlight, and also accept the obligation of practicing good sportsmanship.

"Game traffic will be extremely heavy. Please stay alert and drive safely," President Pantzer added. "We care about you, and so do your family and friends."
