UM FACULTY DIALOGUE
TO FEATURE DISCUSSION
ON ATHLETICS, EDUCATION

MISSOULA--

Two University of Montana faculty members, Dr. John L. Dayries and Dr. Brian J. Sharkey, will lead a discussion involving athletics and educational goals Thursday.

Drs. Dayries and Sharkey, who are associate professors of health, physical education and recreation, will be featured in the UM Faculty Dialogue Program at noon Thursday at the Lutheran Student Center, 532 University.

Topic of the discussion, which is open to students, faculty and townspeople, is "Student Protest--College Athletics and Educational Goals."

Rev. Jon Nelson, Lutheran campus pastor, who is coordinator of the dialogue series, said those who come to the program should bring their own lunch.

The series is sponsored by University campus pastors.
