MISSOULA---

Montana coaches Bob Cope and Lou Rocheleau have divided the 1969 Grizzly fifteen in half for the scrimmage / Tuesday night in the Adams Field House.

Grizzly head coach Cope said, "We're giving the boys their final battle test before they take on the Eastern Washington Savages Saturday in Missoula."

"I think we have a fine nucleus this year and the team could develop into a strong unit. We have the potential, all we need is a continued good attitude and some luck," Cope said.

Cope plans to pit the first eight against the second seven in the Tuesday night test with Dave Gustafson, Harold Ross, Howard Clark, Willie Flowers, Ray Howard, John Harrell, Lonzo Lewis, and Don Wetzel making up the top eight. This eight-man squad will be the white team.

The golds will have Jim Clawson, George Yule, Sid Rhinehart, Mike Judd, Mike Heroux, Henry Saunders and Willie Bascus.

The Montana coaching staff redshirted Kirk Johnson, Earl Tye and Casey Walker to limit the squad to 15.

The public is invited to the scrimmage tonight for a preview of the 1969 Grizzly hardcourters. Game time is 7:30 p.m. in the Adams Field House.
