UM TAX INSTITUTE
SIGN-UP CONTINUES
FRIDAY DOWNTOWN

MISSOULA---

Registration for the University of Montana's annual Institute on Taxation and Estate Planning continues at 8:30 Friday morning (Dec. 5) at the Florence Hotel.

University President Robert T. Pantzer will welcome a large group of lawyers, accountants, insurance agents and trust officers from Montana and other northwest states to the two-day program at 9 a.m. Friday at the hotel.

First formal session on the agenda begins at 9:10 a.m. Friday, when Robert M. Wampler, Helena, an estate tax attorney with the Internal Revenue Service, discusses valuation of interests in closely held businesses, including farms and ranches.

The institute is sponsored by the UM School of Law.
