What do coaches Jack Swarthout of the University of Montana and North Dakota State's Ron Erhardt have in common with Ursula Andress, Rex Harrison, Elizabeth Taylor and Lawrence Welk?

Their birthdays. They're all Pisceans, meaning their birthdays fall under the horoscope sign, Pisces (pie-seas) the fish.

Saturday at Hughes Stadium in Sacramento, Calif., Swarthout's number two-ranked small college Grizzlies and number-one ranked Erhardt's Bison, clash in the Camellia Bowl.

Swarthout, 49, was born Feb. 23, 1920. Erhardt is 37. He was born Feb. 27, 1932.

Anyone born between Feb. 20 and March 20 is a Piscean.

Saturday's horoscope for Pisces people: "You may feel something is being concealed. That may be true--but it is, in all likelihood, for your own good. Know this and act accordingly, don't snoop." That's according to horoscope expert Sydney Omarr.

What does it mean? A warning of a Statue of Liberty play backfiring? A rollout pass, the hidden ball trick, a 12th man on the field, a spy in the opposition dressing room?

No matter what, both coaches should be able to handle it, since Pisces people are "able to step in and clear up thorny situations where others are at a loss because' the Pices' "mind adapts to emergency conditions quickly."
