80 PER CENT
OF UM STUDENTS
FROM MONTANA

MISSOULA---

Enrollment records at the University of Montana show that of the 8,010 students comprising the gross enrollment figure last quarter on the Missoula campus, 6,422 or 80.2 per cent were from Montana communities.

The balance of 1,588 or 19.8 per cent were from other states, U.S. territories or its possessions, or foriegn countries.

Of all the out-of-state students, 1,460 were from other states, U.S. territories or possessions, and 128 were from foreign countries.

All figures were supplied by the office of Leo Smith, UM registrar.

LAWYERS MAY REGISTER
JAN. 6-7 FOR PROGRAM
AT WHITEFISH, MONT.

MISSOULA---

Montana lawyers and out-of-state attorneys unable to preregister for next week's Continuing Legal Education--Montana (CLE) program at Whitefish, Mont., may sign up Monday night (Jan. 6) or Tuesday morning (Jan. 7) at Big Mountain, Whitefish.

The four-day program Jan. 7-10 at Big Mountain, which is sponsored by the UM School of Law and the State Bar Association, is entitled "Conference on Securities and Current Corporate Problems" and is part of the continuing legal education program for lawyers.

Robert E. Sullivan, UM law school dean, said conference sessions are scheduled from 8-10 a.m. and 4:30-6:30 p.m. daily to enable the attorneys to ski on Big Mountain and enjoy other recreational facilities at Whitefish.
