Course Description and Objectives

Description

When one hears or reads the term PUNK ART, the first association that probably comes to mind is the Punk Movement of the late 1970s and early 1980s. Within this movement, the most enduring art form for most people is its music: punk rock. This course will address the visual art forms from the punk movement (as opposed to the music), but we will also explore art that preceded and fed the art of the Punk Movement, art that directly resulted from the Punk Movement, and the influence of the latter on contemporary art, graphic design, and fashion.

Objectives

Punk Art is an online course that integrates images, videos, online articles, writing, and projects to expose students to a wide variety of art and how this art is placed within a punk framework. More specifically, this course will explore visual expressions of ideas and/or emotions that relate to and/or convey:

- Inexperience
- Youth
- "Outsiderdom"
- The Punk Movement
- Loudness
- Aggressiveness
- Cultural and Political Dissent

Course content will be made available to you via UM Online: Moodle by Thursday August 31st. Initially, the first three weeks of content will be revealed to you. Thereafter, new content will be revealed to you every two weeks. PLEASE KEEP IN MIND: YOU ARE MEANT TO FOCUS ON AND COMPLETE ONE WEEK'S WORTH OF CONTENT AT A TIME.
